Numb. 504.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM AUGUST 3. TO AUGUST 10. 1738.

LONDON, April 7.

THE laſt Letters from Tranſylvania ſay, that a great Body of Turks were in March to penetrate that Province on the ſide of Moldavia, and that they would be favour'd by ſeveral Tranſylvanian Gentlemen, who had ſuffered themſelves to be ſeduc'd by the Promiſes of Prince Ragotzky: From hence it's believ'd, that part of the Imperial Army will be oblig'd to advance this way, and that the reſt would remain upon the Defenſive between Belgrade and Sabatch. Another unfortunate Affair attends the Imperial Army, it being attack'd with as dangerous a Sickneſs as prevail'd laſt Year at Hungary: It would otherwiſe conſiſt of 40000 fighting Men, excluſive of the Raſcian, Croatian, and other Militia: and ſuch Meaſures have been taken as that it will be provided with every thing neceſſary.

PARIS, April 19. The Court has receiv'd, by way of Vienna, Diſpatches, from the Marquis de Villeneuve, its Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople, which bring, that the Grand Signior will neither accept of a Mediation, nor Suſpenſion of Arms, nor will agree to the holding of a Congreſs, unleſs the Reſtitution of Oczakow be made the Preliminary. The new Grand Vizir, who is haughty and untractable, told the Marquis de Villeneuve, that it was at preſent enough for his Highneſs to be willing to give up Aſoph; and that poſſibly at the end of the Campaign, he might not be in the ſame Diſpoſition.

Some Merchants of this City have receiv'd Letters from Barcelona, which ſay, that the Troops which are in Catalonia, aſſemble in great Numbers near that Port, and it's reported will embark ſome time this Month. It's ſuſpected that theſe Troops are deſign'd for Italy.

An Extract of a private Letter from AMSTERDAM.

"The States General ſeem to be very unwilling to comply with the Solicitations of the Court of Great Britain, to enter jointly with her into vigorous Meaſures in order to obtain Satisfaction from the Court of Spain, for the Depredations made by the Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas. One Cauſe of their Backwardneſs herein, which indeed is none of the moſt inconſiderable, is the Condition that their Marine Affairs and Finances are in. Another is, they flatter themſelves that as ſoon as the K. of Spain perceives the Unanimity of the Britiſh Nation in its Reſentment of the cruel Uſage of its Sailors, its general Thirſt of avenging the Indignities they have ſuffer'd, and of recovering the great Loſſes its Merchants have ſuſtain'd, his Catholick Majeſty will be more eaſily prevail'd upon to make an ample Satisfaction: Beſides, the States General are very certain, that Spain will not be ſuccour'd by any other Power, and therefore will be in no Condition of making Head againſt the Marine Force of Great Britain, their High Mightineſſes having good Aſſurances that France will carefully avoid to intermeddle in this Diſpute, in which ſhe can have no Advantage and wherein much may be risk'd, eſpecially as the Health of the Cardinal is ſo precarious; for ſhould he die and leave the Kingdom engag'd in a War, which probably would be difficult to determine, who knows what would be the Conſequence? If ſuch a War ſhould be enter'd into, it would ſcarcely be finiſhed without much Bloodſhed; for was France to aſſiſt Spain, their High Mightineſſes would certainly in that Caſe be oblig'd to ſuccour Great Britain: But on the contrary, 'tis apprehended, as Matters now ſtand, was the Republick to take Party againſt Spain, it would determine France in favour of the latter. It's even ſaid, that the cauſing a Body of 60000 Troops to aſſemble between Liſle and Doway is partly to curb the Republick, by ſignifying, in Caſe it ſhould join Great Britain, the Intentions of his moſt Chriſtain Majeſty. We are likewiſe aſſured, that the Steadineſs of the Britiſh Parliament very much baffles the Policy of the Queen of Spain; who by no Means thinks herſelf in a Condition to Support a War againſt that Nation. His Catholick Majeſty has therefore diſpatch'd an Expreſs to Paris, with a Letter to his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, wherein the King of Spain demands of the King, his Nephew, either his Aſſiſtance in Recompence of his having ſo generouſly contributed to the Succeſs of the Schemes form'd by France in the Year 1733; or if the too-pacifick Cardinal does not think fit to enter into War with ſo formidable a Nation as Great Britain, that he would employ his good Offices in Quality of a Mediator, in order to terminate the Miſunderſtandings that have ariſen between his Catholick Majeſty and the King of Great Britain.

LONDON, April 8. We are inform'd from Abbeyleix in Queen's County, Ireland, that a Man arriv'd at an Inn, in that Town with a tame Bear for a Shew: The Hoſt was unwilling to admit Bruin to a Lodging; but being prevail'd on by the Offer of an extraordinary Reward, he remov'd a Calf, which he had fattening in a Stable, to make Room for his new Gueſt. In the Night two notorious Robbers, who had a Mind for a Bit of good Veal againſt Eaſter, broke into the Stable with a felonious Intention to ſteal the Calf; but lifting up the Kiſh, under which the Calf was ſuppoſed to lie, firſt one and then the other were ſo lovingly embrac'd by Bruin, and preſs'd ſo earneſtly, that they were both prevail'd on to ſtay all Night, and in the Morning were ſeiz'd and committed to Maryborough Goal. The Innkeeper generouſly remitted the Price of the Lodging to the Bear, for his good Service.

April 29. Several Letters from Jamaica, dated Feb 18. agree, that there are great Preparations for War every where around that Iſland, and that the Iſland is in a very weak Condition, having but three Men of War on that Station; that the Aſſembly were then ſitting, and it was ſuppos'd the Martial Law would be proclaim'd in order to preſerve themſelves. Theſe Letters confirm, that they have too much Reaſon to ſuſpect that we ſhall have no Satisfaction for the daily Depredations of the Spaniards; that our Commodore had a very diſſatisfactory Anſwer from the Havannah, relating to the Ships he ſent to demand, which were lately taken; the Ships are all condemn'd, however illegally, and ſold at ſo low Prices, that was what they were were ſold for return'd, there muſt be a Loſs of above three Fourths of the Value; but ſays the Letter-Writer, we never expect any Reſtitution 'till our Hands are unty'd.

They write from the Hague, That the States General, after many Deliberations whether it be convenient to employ Force of Arms againſt Spain, and to act in Concert with England, have reſolved to try one Experiment more with the King of Spain, in hopes of obtaining, by amicable Means, the Satisfaction which they demand of him for the Capture of ſeveral Dutch Ships. During this, the Marquis de St. Gilles, who was afraid that the Deliberations of their High Mightineſſes would be attended with an Iſſue conformable to the laſt Inſtances made by Mr. Trevor, has preſented a freſh Memorial to them, purſuant to an Order he had receiv'd from his Court, to deliver ſuch Memorial to the States General, on purpoſe to divert them from joining and acting with the King of Great Britain, in caſe their High Mightineſſes ſhould be ſo diſpoſed.

The following is a Copy of a Letter written by an Officer of the French Troops at Baſtia in the Iſland of Corſica.

"WE are as quiet here as if we were in our Garriſons in "France. The Malecontents are about 15 or 18,000 "of all Denominations, but not above half armed. The "Country they poſſeſs is the fineſt in Italy, and the moſt "plentiful; eſpecially in Hares, Rabbets, &c. which are ex"ceeding good here. They will by no means hear of an "Accommodation with the Republick of Genoa. They "ſeem much rather diſpoſed to let any be their Maſters than "the Genoeſe. They have declar'd in plain Terms, that "rather than be forced to return to the Obedience of the "Republick, they will ſhed the laſt drop of their Blood. "About 8 or 10 Days ago our Commander, the Count de "Boiſſeux, ſent them a Drummer with a Commiſſion, whom "they received with great Joy, kept him three Days, and "regaled him very handſomely. When he return'd they "made a Diſcharge of above a Hundred Muskets to expreſs "their Joy for the Commiſſion. They alſo hung out a "white Flag, as a Signal of Peace and Friendſhip with "France. M. de Boiſſeux ſent the Drummer back again "next Day, and he is not yet returned. What his Buſineſs "can be with the Malecontents is an entire Myſtery.

We hear that a Bill will be brought into Parliament in order to eſtabliſh a new Court of Judicature at Gibraltar, for the Tryal of Civil Matters there.

WILLIAMSBURG, July 21. We have the following ſurpriſing Account from New-Kent County, that Yeſterday was Se'nnight, as ſeveral Gentlemen were travelling from New-Kent Court, Three of them, viz. Major Philip Roots, Capt. Robert Whiting, and Capt. Charles Friend, paſſing together over a Bridge belonging to Col. Baſſet's Mill-Dam, the Bridge broke, and they all fell in. The Fall was 12 Feet, and Plank at the Bottom, yet none of the Gentlemen received any conſiderable Hurt, and but one of the Horſes, whoſe Back was broke by the Fall. Col. Baſſet and ſome others had paſſed over the ſame Bridge that Day, in Wheel-Carriages, with Safety, not ſuſpecting any Danger, the Planks appearing ſound, but the Timber under was rotten.

We hear from Caroline County, that one Bruit lately ſhot himſelf thro' the Head with a Gun, which he twice diſcharg'd on himſelf, the firſt not proving effectual. It ſeems he had been drinking hard ſeveral Days, 'til his Company being tir'd of him, left him alone; and he being weary of himſelf and ſuch a Courſe of Life, put this unhappy Period to his Days.

We hear from the Frontier Counties, Prince William and Orange, that ſince our laſt Account of the Deſtruction of three Families of White People by the Indians, four more Families have been deſtroy'd by them; and that the whole Neighbourhood are under Apprehenſions of greater Danger from the Indians, a greater Number of them being got together; but of what Nation we are not yet certainly informed.

BOSTON, July 31. Laſt Week a Sloop arrived here from North Carolina, which was followed all the Way from that Place by a Schule of Rudder Fiſh ſo called; and ſince her arrival in our Dock, the ſaid Fiſh having been obſerved playing about the Veſſel, they have all been catch'd by Angling, but about Ten or a Dozen. We cannot learn that ever ſuch a Thing was known before. This Fiſh is ſomewhat like a Pearch, but larger; and 'tis thought the Foulneſs of the Veſſel's Bottom occaſioned them to follow it.

By a Veſſel that left Cork the latter End of May, that arriv'd at Cape Ann laſt Saturday, via Madeira, we hear Admiral Haddock with his Squadron, was at Madeira. And the ſaid Veſſel brings Advice, that Capt. Dowrick, belonging to this Place, lately loſt his Veſſel on the Coaſt of Ireland, through the Negligence or Wilfulneſs of two Pilots who quitted her as ſoon as ſhe was on Shore; we are told moſt of her Cargo and Rigging is ſaved.

By a private Letter from South Carolina, we have Advice, that the Small-Pox has made ſuch Havock amongſt them, that Trade and Buſineſs is entirely ſtagnated; and that there's no Proſpect of better Times till that Diſtemper is over.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.

On the 3d Inſt. arrived here the Roſe, of London, Capt. Croak Commander, from whom we have the following Relation, viz.

That on the 17th of June laſt, being on his Voyage from Newfoundland to this Port, and in the Latitude of 41 Deg. N. and 48 Deg. of Longitude, he eſpied a Sail that made Signals of Diſtreſs; whereupon he came up to her, and found her ſo near Sinking, that he had only juſt Time to ſave the Perſons belonging to her, (who were to the Number of 61) for he had no ſooner taken them on board his own Veſſel, but the other foundered in the Sea. The Perſons thus providentially ſaved, informed him:

That they were for the moſt part indented Servants and ſet Sail from Cork for Boſton, the 29th of March laſt, on board the ſaid Veſſel, which was called the Speedwell, of which William Stockdale had been Maſter. That about the 7th of May, their Water and Bread beginning to fall ſhort, they were obliged to touch at the Iſland of St. Michael's, and having lain there at Anchor, about 5 Days, a boiſterous and violent Wind, blowing S W (while the Captain and Super-Cargo, and ſeveral others belonging to the Veſſel were on Shore) forced her out to Sea, leaving her Anchor and Cable behind. That it was 21 Days before ſhe could recover the Iſland, and being arrived there, which was on a Friday, thoſe on board were informed, that the Maſter and thoſe before mentioned, to have been left aſhore, had ſet Sail for Lisbon the Friday before, on Board one Capt. Gillegan. That thereupon the Perſons, who had then the Care of the Veſſel, put to Sea in order to proceed on their Voyage to Boſton. That having met with a hard Gale of Wind, which cauſed the Veſſel's Larboard Quarter to give way, they were obliged to keep two Pumps a going without Intermiſſion, during the Space of three Days, when they moſt providentially met with the Roſe, that ſaved their Lives, which otherwiſe were inevitably loſt. As it was running a Riſque, which few others have cared to do, it was therefore a more remarkable Act of Humanity, in the Commander of the Roſe, to take ſo many additional Mouths on Board, when he had only Proviſions for his own Company. This is ſuch an Inſtance of a laudable Compaſſion, that it is to be wiſhed it may not be more admired than imitated on the like Occaſions.

To the Printer of the Gazette.

Esteemed Friend,

I Have given thee some Information, a good while since, of that excellent Discovery, that hath been found out amongst us, for to cure the Bite of a Rattle-Snake: It hath now been practised by several Persons, and it never hath failed, but performed the Cure to Admiration. It would be well to publish it for the Good of Mankind.

The Cure is thus: Take of common Salt, powder it fine, and rub it with your Fingers over and into the Wound; if you scarrify the Skin with the Edge or sharp Point of a Knife or Needle, near the Wound, 'twould do much good, & bind some Quantity of Salt to the Sore. It giveth speedy Ease, draweth the poysonous Matter away in large Quantities, and destroyeth the Nature and Effects of the Poyson.

PROPOSALS for Printing by Subscription, A Treatise on the DISEASES of Virginia, and the Neighbouring Colonies. In Four Parts, viz.

I. The remote Causes of the Epidemical Diseases, collectively considered, from the Circumstances of the Climate, and common Way of Living.

II. Each Disease separately stated; wherein is shewn the immediate Cause, with a Retrospect to its Connection with the Remote Cause, and the curative Part amply set forth.

III. The Reasons why Diseases translate.

IV. An Essay on Pleuritick and Peripneumonick Fevers, wherein the Nature of these Diseases is fully and clearly explained; and thence is demonstrated, that the Cure both of the nervous and inflammatory Kind, consists in attenuating the Blood, save only, that Evacuation is requisite by Blood-letting and Purging in the latter.

To which is annexed, An Appendix, shewing the strongest Reason, a priori, that the Seneka Rattlesnake-Root must be of more extensive Use than any Medicine in the Materia Medica; and these Reasons are supported by several Instances of the extraordinary Efficacy of that valuable Medicine, which still more plainly directs its Use in Pleuritick and Peripneumonick Fevers, and other Diseases. And herein is also demonstrated, that this Root will suit the Cure of the Small-Pox: With References to Doctor Hillary's Treatise on that Disease.
